0 RBI to press for revision of ordinance after it is repealed Mumbai: The Reserve Bank of India will be pressing for revision of the ordinance, which was issued by the previous UPA government in June 2012, to empower it to deal with the issues around payment and settlement systems, when it revises the Reserve Bank of India Act to reflect the changes in the monetary policy and economic conditions that have come up over the last two years. The amendment seeks to give the central bank the powers to issue banking licences and prevent private players from taking banking licences for the first time, even if they do not have adequate skill sets in the two areas of KYC (know your customer) and AML (anti-money laundering). The State Bank of India has recently strengthened its position in the banking ecosystem, with a record Rs 1.76 lakh crore of gross non-performing assets (NPAs) being reported by lenders in September, from Rs 1.34 lakh crore in September 2012. The NPAs are a good indicator of the poor financial health of banks.Q: Work on the document as you type in JavaScript I am doing a Programming Skills Quiz (one of those crazy app ideas on the weekend).
